Dear Students, Parents, Faculty, & Staff,

Following are this week's FIDS updates.

January Parent Association Meeting. Following are the details of January's Parent Association (PA) Meeting, hosted by Melissa and Jared Lustbader (Greyson, Holden, & Leighton):

- Date: Friday, January 10, 2020 -- TOMORROW!
- Time: 9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.
- Place: South Pointe Tavern

For those on the island looking for a ride to the meeting, Genaro will depart school at 8:35 a.m., drive the bus to South Pointe Tavern, and bring you back right afterwards. Please attend to show your support of our PA Co-Chairs, Anna Mehrabi and Katie Volé.

Guest Speaker at January 10th Parent Association Meeting. Our Parent Association (PA) is pleased to welcome Dr. Christine Winter, CPC, ELI-M, Family and Health Coach, as our guest speaker at the January 10th PA Meeting. Prior to relocating to the United States, Dr. Winter worked as a pediatrician for 11 years in Germany. Dr. Winter supports families and individuals facing the challenges of:

- health conditions/special needs;
- parenting/challenging behavior;
- blended families; and
- family relationships.

Re-Enrollment Contracts. On Wednesday, January 15, 2020, Pre-Kindergarten through Grade 8 re-enrollment contracts will be sent to families who do not have any outstanding obligations to FIDS. We hope that you are interested in having your child return to FIDS in 2020 - 2021. If so, please complete the re-enrollment contract and return it, along with the required deposit, to Mrs. Deborah Van Stone, Office Manager, no later than Monday, February 10, 2020. Please know that many classes are predicted to be at capacity next year, and we have been receiving numerous inquiries for new enrollments. In order to guarantee your child a space next year, the re-enrollment contract and deposit must be returned by the due date. After the due date, non-deposited slots will be offered to new applicants. I thank you in advance for your cooperation.
